Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the plate" in line 10. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 7 recites the limitation "the tee" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 11 recites the limitation "the tee" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claims 2-6,8-10, and 12 inherit the deficiencies of claim 1. Note, claim 12 refers to a "forth" standard, it is assumed this is a typo and "fourth" is the correct word.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, and 5-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Laseke. Laseke discloses a stand having a base (63) and an upstanding post (un-numbered post attached to stand 63).

a crossbar having a horizontal orientation (52); a series of strategically positioned standards mounted on said cross bar (55,51,56), said standards circumscribing an arc, which arc defines the proper position of the bat during various parts of the swing from a start position through contact with a ball as it passes over the plate (fig 4).

As to claim 2 : See lead lines 55,51,and 56.

As to claim 3 : See lead lines 55,51,and 56/47 which are mounted rear, midway and outermost as claimed.

As to claim 5 : Laseke discloses a flexible material attached to standard (fig 4, 3:24-26). See also standard 55 which includes the same material wherein the examiner takes the position that the material sleeve on standard 55 is the same as that on standard 51

As to claim 6 : See lead line 47.

As to claim 7 : The mere positioning of the batter laterally relative to the device in figure 4, which selectively positions the tee, simulates inside and outside pitches. Applicant does not claim any adjustment structure.

As to claim 8 : Laseke discloses standards that are adjustable (fig 4,55,56)

As to claim 9 : The front element (63) may be "pivoted" relative to the rear element (63) to allow the standard (56) to be adjusted relative to the batter to accommodate the batter's arm length. Applicant does not claim any particular adjustment structure.

As to claim 10: Laseke discloses standards that are adjustable (fig 4,55,56).

As to claim 11: Laseke discloses a moveable tee (fig 4,47).

As to claim 12: Laseke discloses a fourth standard (fig 4,47). In as much structure as set forth by the applicant, item 47 may be considered a fourth standard.
